

Islands Art Co-ordinator Job Advert

The North Ayrshire Place Partnership is looking for a self-motivated individual to develop the cultural activity on the islands of Arran & Cumbrae. This role is designed to build on the existing creativity and energy of the islands in North Ayrshire, support recovery from the impact of Covid-19 on the cultural infrastructures of each place and developed a shared vision for arts and culture across the two islands. We are looking for an individual with a strong track record of working with communities collaboratively to support creative engagement, an understanding of developing cultural infrastructures within an island or rural context and strong project management experience.

Summary of Role

The role will support the delivery of North Ayrshire Place Partnership aims within Arran and Cumbrae, identifying opportunities for strategic development across the two islands. The post holder will report to the North Ayrshire Place Partnership (North Ayrshire Council and Creative Scotland), who will set the strategic direction and approve the work plan for the post holder. In addition, regular updates must be provided for key local partners, including the Arran Arts and Theatre Trust, with an annual report provided at the end of each financial year (March 2022, March 2023).

Salary

£150 per day for 8 days a month (£1,200 p/m), submitting a fully detailed invoice for payment. Budget for the post holder's travel will also be provided.

It is expected that the successful applicant will be prepared to work flexibly and spend time on both islands as required, as well as work from home. IT equipment will be provided.

Contract

24-month contract at 8 days per month equivalent

How to apply

To apply, please send a CV and Covering letter (no more than two A4 sides) to nalacepartnership@north-ayrshire.gov.uk by the closing date Tuesday 28th September at 12:00pm.

Further Information and Access Support

If you require any access support with your application or have further questions, please email us at: nalacepartnership@north-ayrshire.gov.uk

Please see the Islands Art Co-ordinator Job Description for further information on the role and experience required.

Interviews

Interviews for the role will be held on Wednesday 6th October, please state in your application if you are unable to make this date and we will consider an alternative date

